

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH FLORIDA Marshall Student Center, Chick-fil-A

This project was a remodel for Aramark in the University of South Florida's Marshall Student Center. The scope of work included the complete renovation of an existing restaurant space that was formerly used for a Beef 'O' Brady's and transform it into a Chick-fil-A restaurant with a dining room and a Bento sushi bar. ENCOTECH's scope included all new electrical, HVAC, walls, plumbing, food service equipment and finishes, including a combination of polished concrete floors, floor and wall tile, ceilings, wall finishes, new front service counters and updated dining areas with new furnishings.
